

HR Manager of the Year

This award is open individual HR Managers working in-house for a company.

This award recognises the person leading the HR function who can show that they have made a transformative impact on the working lives of staff within the company.

This might include areas such as training, rewards, incentives, people progression and other changes that improve the culture and day-to-day work environment.

Click here to register for this award

Find out about the other categories here

Sponsored by:

BIZIMPLY