

Training Professional of the Year

This award is open to entries from independent individual trainers or by trainers working in-house for a company.

Candidates must also demonstrate that they have been involved in training needs identification, programme content, delivery and in measuring the effectiveness of such training.

The award focuses innovation, their approach to training and their skills in developing and delivering really great training and their personal style in coaching and motivation.

Click here to register for this award

Find out about the other categories here

 NITAs
2020

Sponsored by:

